COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Dwayne DeValle Page (“Page”) brings this Complaint against Defendants Sirko International, LLC (“Sirko, LLC”) and Jonathan Sirko (“Jonathan Sirko”) (collectively “Defendants”) and show the Court as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1.

This is a wage and hour case.

2.

Defendants employed Page as a security guard from on or about August 29, 2022 through February 18, 2023 (hereinafter the “Relevant Time Period”). Defendants misclassified Page as an independent contractor and failed to compensate him statutory overtime wages throughout his employment as required by the Fair Labor Standards Act.

3.

In addition to his federal causes of action, Page asserts a pendent state law claim for breach of contract which arises out of the same set of operating facts as his federal claims.

(a) Jurisdiction and Venue

4.

This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the present action under Article III, § 2 of the United States Constitution, FLSA § 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and 28 U. S.C § 1331, because this case arises under the FLSA, a federal statute that affects interstate commerce.

5.

Venue properly lies in the Northern District of Georgia under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Sirko International is located within this judicial district and a substantial portion of the events giving rise to the claims herein arose in this judicial district.

96.

Throughout the Relevant Time Period, Defendants failed to pay Page at one-and-one-half times his regular rate for time worked in excess of forty (40) hours during each work week.

97.

Throughout the Relevant Time Period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Page at one-and-one-half times his regular rate for work in excess of forty (40) hours in any week.

98.

Page is entitled to payment of overtime in an amount to be determined at trial, in accordance with FLSA § 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

99.

As a result of the underpayment of overtime compensation as alleged above, Page is entitled to liquidated damages in accordance with FLSA § 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

100.

As a result of the underpayment of overtime compensation as alleged above, Page is entitled to his litigation costs, including his reasonable attorneys' fees in accordance with FLSA § 16(b); 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

COUNT II – BREACH OF CONTRACT

101.

The allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-92 above are incorporated herein by reference as if stated verbatim.

102.

Page and Sirko, LLC were parties to a contract of employment (hereafter “the Contract”) from on or about August 29, 2022 through February 18, 2023.

103.

The Contract provided that Sirko, LLC would pay Page for work that was performed by Page on behalf of and for the benefit of Defendant.

104.

The Contract provided that Sirko, LLC would pay Page an hourly wage for work that was performed by Page on behalf of and for the benefit of Defendant.

105.

Sirko, LLC’s failure to pay Page agreed upon wages for approximately 32 hours of work he performed during his last two weeks of employment constitutes a material breach of the Contract.

106.

As the direct and foreseeable result of this breach, Page has sustained and continues to sustain damages in an amount to be proved at trial.

WHEREFORE, Page respectfully prays:

(a) That his claims be tried before a jury;

- (b) That this Court issues a judgment declaring that Plaintiff was covered by the provisions of the FLSA and that Defendants have failed to comply with the Maximum Hours requirements of the FLSA;
- (c) That he be awarded all due but unpaid overtime compensation in an amount to be determined at trial against Defendants, jointly and severally;
- (d) That he be awarded an additional like amount in liquidated damages; against Defendants, jointly and severally;
- (e) That he be awarded damages in an amount to be proved at trial against Defendant Sirko International for the state law claim herein asserted in an amount to be proven at trial;
- (f) That he be awarded prejudgment and post judgment interest on all amounts owed;
- (g) That he be awarded his costs of litigation, including his reasonable attorneys' fees from Defendants, jointly and severally;
- (h) That he be awarded nominal damages; and
- (i) For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
